

B.S. in Automotive Technology Management Flow Chart
 (This is one possible sequence for Winter/Summer track – not a required sequence)
 Revised 4/18/08

1. Take this internship during an “off-track” semester. See Brother Miller for details.
2. Take this internship during an “off track” semester. See Brother Spratling for details.
3. B 301, B 321, B 341, and B 361 constitute the “IBC” and must be taken together. You must apply for the IBC through the business department before registering for classes.
4. A student must have completed at least 20 credits of automotive (blue) courses before registering for AUTO 340
5. FDCNC 250 is a capstone course and should be taken after completing all other foundations courses.