

Communication

Kevin Jackson

I enjoy being around people and getting to know others and what makes them tick. I'm very trusting and hold my friends very close. I love working with groups because it compels people to get to know one another. I love being active and playing sports, mainly playing basketball and throwing around the football. I've also been involved a lot on campus with different organizations ranging from Guitars Unplugged to the Competitive Basketball League.