If any member of your household (who qualifies to be listed on your FAFSA application) received benefits in 2010 and/or 2011 from certain federal benefit programs and your (plus your spouse’s, if married) 2011 income is less than $50,000, you may qualify for an adjusted Expected Family Contribution (EFC) which may increase your eligibility for aid.

The benefit programs that may qualify you for this adjustment are listed below. If anyone in your household received benefits from one or more of these programs in 2010 and/or 2011, please check the appropriate blank/s and complete the certification at the bottom of this form.

- _____ Supplemental Security Income Program (SSI)
  (Does not include regular Social Security Benefits such as those received due to retirement or as a survivor of a decedent.)

- _____ SNAP (Food Stamp Program)

- _____ Free or Reduced Price School Lunch Program

- _____ Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

- _____ Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

- _____ None of the Above

Final qualification will be determined by BYU-I Financial Aid Office

CERTIFICATION

All of the information provided by me or any other person on this form is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Student Signature: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________