Jesus Christ and the Everlasting Gospel

COURSE SUMMARY
A study of the roles, ministry, and teachings of Jesus Christ, the doctrine of His Atonement, and Heavenly Father’s everlasting plan for His children.

MAJOR DOCTRINAL EMPHASES
- The testimony of Jesus Christ as borne throughout the standard works and the words of modern prophets
- The Savior’s roles throughout eternity with emphasis on His fulfillment of Heavenly Father’s plan
- Heavenly Father’s plan to bring about the immortality and eternal life of His children through the Atonement of Jesus Christ

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course focuses on the eternal ministry of Jesus Christ and His divine roles and teachings throughout His premortal, mortal, and postmortal life. Special emphasis is given to the Savior’s central role in Heavenly Father’s plan for His children. Students are invited to deepen their love for and testimony of Jesus Christ and to become more devoted disciples. This course builds upon students’ previous sequential and topical gospel study experiences and is taught using blocks of scripture in context from across the standard works as well as the teachings of modern prophets.

COURSE OUTCOMES
Through this course students will draw nearer to Heavenly Father as they deepen their understanding of the divine roles of Jesus Christ and increase their personal discipleship. Students will increase their ability to study the scriptures, strengthen their gospel scholarship, and see the scriptures woven together as a unified witness of the Savior (see Luke 24:27). Students will be prepared to explain and testify of the divine roles of the Savior in Heavenly Father’s plan and to live, proclaim, and defend the gospel of Jesus Christ.
The Teachings and Doctrine of the Book of Mormon

COURSE SUMMARY
A study of the doctrine taught in the prophetic writings, sermons, and themes of the Book of Mormon, with emphasis on Heavenly Father’s plan and the central role of His Son, Jesus Christ.

MAJOR DOCTRINAL EMPHASES
- The Book of Mormon’s witness of Jesus Christ
- The doctrine, sermons, and teachings of the Book of Mormon
- The divine origin of the Book of Mormon

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course focuses on doctrine and themes found throughout the writings, teachings, and sermons of the Book of Mormon. Emphasis is given to prophetic witnesses of Heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus Christ. This course builds upon students’ previous sequential and topical gospel study experiences.

COURSE OUTCOMES
Students will better understand the Book of Mormon as another witness of Jesus Christ and deepen their love for and testimony of Him. They will increase their ability to study the scriptures in context and will strengthen their gospel scholarship, leading to greater understanding and personal discipleship. They will be prepared to explain and testify of the doctrine, importance, and divine origin of the Book of Mormon.
Foundations of the Restoration

COURSE SUMMARY
A study of foundational revelations, doctrine, historical events, and people relevant to the unfolding Restoration of the Church of Jesus Christ as found in the standard works, the teachings of modern prophets, and Church history.

MAJOR DOCTRINAL EMPHASES
- The prophetic calling and doctrinal teachings of Joseph Smith Jr.
- Key sections and doctrine from the Doctrine and Covenants, Joseph Smith—History, and the Articles of Faith
- The foundational events of the Restoration including the First Vision, the coming forth of the Book of Mormon, and the restoration of the priesthood
- The truthfulness, establishment, organization, doctrine, and practices of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

COURSE DESCRIPTION
In this course students will study key revelations, doctrine, people, and events related to the Restoration of the Church of Jesus Christ. As they do so, they will build upon their previous sequential and topical gospel study experiences. This course will provide the doctrinal foundation and historical context needed to gain an accurate understanding of Church doctrine and history. Students will study the scriptures, doctrine, and Church history in ways that relate to their lives and circumstances.

COURSE OUTCOMES
Students will deepen their understanding of the restored gospel, latter-day revelations, and Church history and how these relate to Heavenly Father’s plan for the redemption of His children. Students will further develop their capacity to study the scriptures in context and strengthen their scholarship relating to the Restoration. They will increase in their ability to seek truth, evaluate the validity and reliability of source material, and discern truth from error. As students develop greater faith in Jesus Christ and a stronger testimony of the restored gospel, they will increase in their commitment to make and keep sacred covenants and be better prepared to share the message of the Restoration.
COURSE SUMMARY
A study of the central role of the family in the plan of salvation as taught in the scriptures and the words of modern prophets—particularly “The Family: A Proclamation to the World.”

MAJOR DOCTRINAL EMPHASES
- The doctrine of the family and its central role in Heavenly Father’s plan
- Our divine nature and destiny as children of Heavenly Father
- The role of living prophets to teach, direct, and administer covenants and ordinances, including the blessings of the temple
- Strengthening our families and promoting the eternal family in society

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is centered on the doctrine of the family and the central role families play in Heavenly Father’s plan of salvation. Course content is based on “The Family: A Proclamation to the World,” other teachings of latter-day prophets, and the scriptures.

COURSE OUTCOMES
Students will increase their understanding and testimony of the true doctrine of the eternal family and the role of families in leading to happiness on earth and eternal life with Heavenly Father. Students will be more inspired and able to explain, promote, and defend the doctrine of the family, the place of the family in Heavenly Father’s plan, and how the family is the “fundamental unit of society” (“The Family: A Proclamation to the World,” Ensign, Nov. 2010, 129). Students will be more prepared to evaluate questions and sources of information in the light of scriptural and prophetic teachings.
