ARRIVAL TIME & CHECK-IN
All participants should arrive on the BYU-Idaho Campus on Friday at 2:00 p.m. Check-in will be in the Manwaring Center grand ballroom (enter on the south side of the building). Please arrive dressed appropriately for campus (no shorts, capris, or flip-flops). Housing assignments and other information will be given at this time.

TRAVEL TIPS
Head south on US-20 and take the North Rexburg exit (exit 337). At the end of the highway off-ramp, turn left onto North Salem Road which turns into 2nd East. Continue on 2nd East for about 3 miles (2nd East goes in front of Wal-Mart). Turn right onto Viking Dr. The Manwaring Center (where check-ins will be) is at the West end of East Viking Drive.

FOOD & HOUSING
Youth conference participants will stay in BYU-Idaho dorms. Beds are provided but participants must bring their own fitted or straight sheet, pillow, and blanket. All meals are provided during the youth conference. If you have food allergies that were not noted during the online registration, please contact a leader and inform them. The leaders can then notify the Sugar City Stake who is planning the meals.

ROOMMATE AND GROUP PREFERENCE
As was specified by the stake leadership council, roommates for the overnight stay of the youth conference will be randomly assigned. Youth should take this opportunity to get to know new people and seek to contribute in positive ways to building relationships.

LOST AND FOUND
BYU IDAHO cannot be held responsible for lost items. Please put your name and address on all your belongings. In the event that you lose something while at youth conference, you may contact The Lost and Found at BYU Idaho. Their number is 208-496-1401. Please check to see that you have gathered all your belongings before leaving any event.

STANDARDS
Standards for youth conference are the same as standards set by BYU-Idaho which also includes the Honor Code and the Dress and Grooming Standards. Please refer to the dress and grooming standards outlined in this packet. For a complete list of the BYU-Idaho Dress Code see http://www2.byui.edu/catalog/2004-2005/dress.asp.htm.

CELL PHONE AND ELECTRONICS
No cell phones, laptops, iPads, handheld gaming devices, music players (mp3, iPod, etc.), or any other electronic device will be allowed during the youth conference. The only exception for electronics is in the case that the device will be used for accessing scriptures to read during the conference. After the device is used to access scripture, it must be put away.

EMERGENCY CONTACT
In the event of an emergency, participants may be contacted by reaching the campus police. Their number is listed below. Those wishing to contact a participant should be prepared to give the participants full name and the name of the program they are attending (Multi-Stake Youth Conference).

CODE OF CONDUCT

We hope to provide the best experience possible to all youth who attend. There are five major rules which must be followed while participating in the youth conference on BYU-Idaho’s campus. These rules are listed below:

1) Obey the Law of Chastity as outlined in the Strength for Youth Pamphlet.
2) Obey the Word of Wisdom or refrain from cigarettes, drugs, alcohol, or any illegal substances.
3) Obey the local laws and respect the program, campus, and local authorities. Any vandalism and deviant behavior will be turned over to local authorities.
4) Build healthy, positive relationships with everyone in the program and do not harm others.
5) Participate in the program and do not leave the group, campus, or program locations without permission.
