

C O N T R I B U T O R S

VOLUME 9 NUMBER 1 SPRING 2009

Brian Blaylock—Has taught in the Architecture and Construction Department since 1998. Earned BS in construction management from BYU, MS in technology education from Utah State University, and PhD in education from the University of Idaho. With wife Brenda, has six children, including two now serving missions. Enjoys woodworking and gardening.

Brian Blaylock

Kevin L. Brady—In his first year with the Economics Department. Received MS in applied economics from Jon M. Huntsman School of Business; BA summa cum laude in economics from Utah State University. Lives in Rexburg with his wife, Heather, and their daughter, Liv. Enjoys golf, watching college football, and being with his family.

Kevin L. Brady

Fenton L. Broadhead—Came to Ricks College in 1987; taught economics and was dean of Business and Communication until named academic vice president in 2008. Holds BA and MEd degrees from BYU and EdD from the University of Idaho. Presided in the Brazil São Paulo North Mission 1996–1999. With wife, Carol, has six children.

Fenton L. Broadhead

Dan Burr

Dan Burr—At BYU–Idaho since 2001; earned BFA at Utah State University and MA in illustration from Syracuse University. Worked as illustrator for 20 years, including five years in New York City. Having learned in boyhood to paint the outdoors and watch trout rise to dry flies, returned to the West. Enjoys the wide world with wife, Patti, and two children.

Jason Scott Earl

Jason Scott Earl—Came to the Business Management Department in 2007. Earned AS in mechanical engineering from Ricks College, BS and MS from BYU in civil and structural engineering, MBA from Tulane University in corporate finance, and currently working on doctorate at Capella University. With wife, Natalie, has three boys and one beautiful baby girl.

Brian Felt

Brian Felt—Grew up in Washington and Idaho; served a mission in Sofia, Bulgaria. Holds BA in Russian from BYU; MA and PhD in slavic linguistics from the University of Illinois. Taught three years at Emory University before coming to teach Russian at BYU–Idaho in 2005. Enjoys music, cycling, racquetball, hiking, and playing soccer with his family. With wife, Jennifer, has five children.

P. Scott Ferguson

P. Scott Ferguson—A native of Utah and Idaho. With wife, Julie, has six children. In 28th year of employment at BYU–Idaho. Says he has seen many changes on campus but none so great as in the past seven years. Enjoys old movies, classical music, and reading followed by discussion. Doesn't fish as often as he would like to.

Kendall Grant

Kendall Grant—Grew up in Rexburg, where his father coached at Ricks College and his mother taught English part time. Remembers crawling around the foundation of the Hart Building during its construction. Being a Ricks student was his favorite educational experience. Teaches in the English Department since 1989.

Jack Harrell—Has taught English at BYU–Idaho since 1995. Published fiction in Irreantum, Dialogue, and Words of Wisdom, as well as a novel, Vernal Promises. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children. A version of his essay “Human Conflict and the Mormon Writer” was presented at the 2009 Association for Mormon Letters Conference at Utah Valley University.

Jack Harrell

M. Kip Hartvigsen—Grew up in Provo; studied at BYU and Washington State University. Edited Thinking About Thinking and I Think, texts for English 311 and Foundations English 101. Loves family life with Christen and laments the almost empty nest. Enjoys old movies, especially Hitchcock, musicals, and Bible epics—and anything outdoors.

M. Kip Hartvigsen

Donnell Hunter—Taught English at Ricks College 1955–1993; returned as adjunct faculty in 2008 after serving as mission president in Veracruz, Mexico (1993–1996), area welfare agent in Central America (1998–2000), and temple president in Santiago, Chile (2001–2004). Has published poems in more than 130 different publications. With wife, Nita, has 8 children, 30 grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren.

Donnell Hunter

Anne Papworth—Rexburg native and Ricks graduate. Received MA in English at BYU and taught at Ithaca College, New York. Completing PhD in technical communication and rhetoric at Texas Tech University. Married Jim and his five sons, then bore two more sons. Enjoys reading to the children and gardening. Recently traveled to Peru and Eastern Europe.

Anne Papworth

Andrea G. Radke-Moss—Received BA and MA in U.S. history from BYU; PhD from University of Nebraska–Lincoln. Has taught at BYU–Idaho since 2004. Research includes women in higher education, rural homesteading, and Mormon history. In 2008 published Bright Epoch: Women and Coeducation in the American West. With husband, Stephen, and baby son, Tristan, enjoys flowers and fly fishing.

Andrea G. Radke-Moss

Scott Samuelson

Scott Samuelson—Has taught in the English Department since 1982, after teaching at the Air Force Academy. Earned BA and MA at BYU; PhD from University of California, Irvine. Also teaches a course in book arts, paints watercolor, and prints poetry on his letter press under the imprint Fat Matter Press.

Robert Schwartz

Robert Schwartz—Teaches German since 1966, interrupted by BYU Vienna Semester Abroad in 1980, Ricks College Passport Program in 1996, and mission president in Rostov na Donau, Russia, 1997–2000. Holds BA from Utah State University and MA from Michigan State University in German. With wife, Barbara, has six children and 22 grandchildren.

Rhonda Seamons

Rhonda Seamons—At BYU–Idaho for 16 years; formerly taught elementary school in Utah: Weber, Davis, and Jordan districts. Has taught in education, religion, Spanish, and English. Served as dean of education and in other administrative positions. Filled mission to Madrid, Spain. Enjoys teaching Gospel Doctrine and serving in the Rexburg Temple.

Vaun Waddell

Vaun Waddell—Teaches in the English Department since 1983; directed Reading Center 1983–93. Served seven years in army intelligence. Received BA and MA degrees from Utah State University. Enjoys leading tours in Europe; retired from whitewater guiding. With wife, Lidia, awaiting 18th grandchild.