

Lisa Rasmussen Thueson, Teresa Gemar Smith, Glenn W. Dalling, and Reynold Gardner

Athletic Hall of Fame

A former administrator and coach, along with three former athletes, has been inducted into the Ricks College Athletic Hall of Fame at BYU–Idaho.

Glenn W. Dalling '54 served as the athletic director at Ricks College from 1981 through 1994, following a successful 13-year career as head coach of men's basketball. His teams recorded three ICAC championships. In 1984 Dalling was named the Men's Region 18 Director in the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Lisa Rasmussen Thueson '95 was a two-year standout on the Lady Vikings basketball team. She ranks sixth for best scoring average in a season in 1994-95. She was named All-Region Second Team. In her sophomore year, Lisa was All-Region First Team and was also named to the NJCAA All Tournament Team.

Teresa Gemar Smith '94 ranks among the top two-year scorers in Lady Viking basketball history. In 1993 Teresa made the NJCAA All Tournament Team. In 1994 she was named the Region Most Valuable Player and was All American Honorable Mention.

Reynold Gardner '93 won the wrestling Region Heavyweight Championship in 1993. He earned NJCAA All American status in 1992 and again in 1993 when he won the NJCAA National Heavyweight Championship. He was named Alumni Athlete of the Year at Ricks College in 1995.

Alumni Portfolios

1970s

Boyd M. Thompson '70 works as a ramp agent for Mesa Airlines at Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport. Boyd worked for the Air Force for over four years and spent 22 years with AlliedSignal (now Honeywell.) He lives in Mesa, Ariz., and has eight children and 12 grandchildren.

Chris A. Barry '77 graduated from the Idaho Certified Public Manager Program and is a bureau chief at Idaho State Tax Commission. Chris and his wife Wendie live in Boise, Idaho, and are the parents of three children.

Cindy Tucker Muir '77 received two bachelor's degrees from Idaho State University and her master's degree from University of Idaho. Cindy teaches at Madison Junior High in Rexburg. She and her husband have ten children and nine grandchildren.

Nancy K. Pomeroy '78 has spent the past 15 years in media and public relations. She currently works as a candidate consultant and as the communications director of the political action committee Parents for Choice in Education.

Reatha Baughman Carey '79 was Oklahoma Kids' CareNet employee of the month for September 2006. She was hired as a Family Support Provider in February 2005 and started organizing and teaching boys' and girls' art classes in April 2006.

Dan L. Lingren '79 retired from the CIA after 23 years of service and five tours overseas. He is now working at Lockheed Martin. Dan is married to Wendy Hutchinson Lingren '80.

1980s

Blake V. Chamberlain '82 received his doctor of medicine degree from Uniformed Services University of Health Science in 1991 and served as a flight surgeon and emergency medicine physician in the United States Air Force. Presently he is employed by UTMB/Wyle Laboratories supporting International Space Station, shuttle flight and training operations. He recently deployed to Kazakhstan.

Kathryn Kimball Shelton '82 is chair of the paralegal division for the Utah Bar. A paralegal for over 11 years, she has worked in the legal field for over 23 years. She is with the law firm of Durham, Jones & Pinegar and works in the corporate and securities section. Kathryn and her husband Wesley Charles Shelton '83 live in Cottonwood Heights, Utah.

Julie Center Dilworth '84 was recognized for 20 years of service for teaching in the Russellville, Ariz., public school system.

Michael G. Jensen '84 was elected in November 2006 to the Utah State Board of Education for District 6. He graduated from BYU with a bachelor's degree in journalism and from California State University, Dominguez Hills with a master's degree in behavioral science, negotiation and conflict management. He and his wife Rose have two daughters.

Timur Parrett Gaston '85 and her husband Gary live in Madras, Ore., and have two children. Timur earned a bachelor's degree in history and geography and a master in art for teachers degree from George Fox University. She teaches English as a second language and history at Madras High School and writes curriculum for Northwest Indian College.

David R. '86 and Karen Lietz Phillips '86 have been married for 22 years and have five children.

Dave is a technician at Autoliv, a leader in the airbag industry. Karen has been a preschool teacher and an administrator. She developed the title for Educare for Child Care.

Vickie Burnhope Tilley '88 is a nurse at Logan Regional Hospital. She is a diabetes educator and works in the cardiac catheterization lab. Vickie lives in Logan, Utah, and has three children.

1990s

Curtis C. Sandy '92 serves on the Idaho Emergency Medical Service Physicians Commission. He is an emergency medicine physician at Portneuf Medical Center in Pocatello. Active in the community, he has served as president of the Idaho chapter of Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians. He and his wife Heather have four children.

Steven A. Osburn '94 recently joined the board of directors of the 2009 Special Olympics World Winter Games in Boise, Idaho. He is married to Della Lynn Osburn.

Elizabeth Zmolek '94 earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Adams State College and a master's degree in education from Loyola College. She teaches in Switzerland at a bilingual Montessori School and has two sons.

John D. McGroarty '95 was selected for membership in Golden Key International Honor Society, Phi Kappa Phi and Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities in 2006.

MacKay C. Wrigley '95 was promoted to assistant vice president with the builder services group at Syringa Bank dealing primarily with residential construction loans.

Tamara Jean Cannon Rands '97 and her husband Jeremiah live in Hesperia, Calif., and are both working on master's degrees in special education. They have two sons.

2000s

Angela Hacking Vest '01 graduated from BYU in 2003. She received a master's degree in social work from West Virginia University and worked for one year for Early Head Start. She and her husband Devan live in Morgantown, W.Va., while he is in dental school. They and their daughter will move to Portland, Ore., for his orthodontic residency at Oregon Health and Science University.

Kristin Leette Stewart Roundy '01 recently received the Nurse Excellence Award at Dixie Regional Medical Center in St. George, Utah. She and her husband Cole live in Washington, Utah.

Joel C. '01 and Britni Jones Call '01 live in New Braunfels, Tex. They have one child. Joel was recently promoted to head freshman football coach and freshman athletic coordinator at Judson High School in Converse, Tex. He is also the receiver coach for the varsity team.

Ryan Gibson '03 is working as an account executive for the Portland Trail Blazers in season ticket sales.

Heber '03 and Edlira Maku Longhurst '04 live in Mexico City, Mexico. Heber is working for Citigroup Investment Research providing analytical services for Citigroup and Banamex Treasury and Trading as well as analysis for financial innovation and expansion in Latin America. Heber and Edlira have three children.

Brandon R. '03 and Dayna Howard Slater '03. Brandon is an associate at CB Richard Ellis, one of the world's largest international commercial real estate firms.

Nathan Tice '03 works in the information technology field as an analyst for American International Group. He and his wife Andrea live in Middletown, Del., and are the parents of three children.

Kymerli A. Baird '04 works for the Church Educational System in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Paul '04 and Marissa Parker Waldrop '04 are the parents of two children and live in The Woodlands, Texas.

Paul graduated from Utah State University with a master of science degree in instructional technology. He is working as an instructional designer at the University of Houston.

Matthew C. Felshaw '05 is an English teacher in Winnemucca, Nev. He is also a coach for the high school football team.

Kirk '05 and Jessica Murdock Gillespie '05 are attending Eastern New Mexico University. Kirk teaches an undergraduate course at the university. He is pursuing a career teaching seminary and institute.

Steve '99, '05 and Chris Butterfield Nethercott '99 live in Rigby, Idaho. Steve is a self-employed graphic designer, and Chris works part time as a nurse. They have three children

Bradley K. Rhoton '06 has been recently hired at Conduit IT in State College, Pa.

CORRECTION: Fall 2006 Summit Magazine, p. 32: John Wayne Millar '68 is a civil engineer employed as the public works director for the city of Rexburg. His wife Jean teaches at Lincoln Elementary in Rexburg.

KEEP US INFORMED

Alumni Portfolio is a great way to stay connected. You too can share your personal updates on job changes, relocations, or promotions with fellow alumni. Submissions for consideration of publication in the next edition of the Summit Magazine may be submitted online at www.byui.edu/alumni.