

Robert Pothier
Partner

Mr. Pothier is a Partner at Wasatch Venture Fund. Prior to Wasatch, Bob was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Rockford Corporation, growing the company from 15 employees to over 670 employees internationally. He was also a partner from 1978 to 1982 in Camelback Capital Corporation, an early-stage venture capital company. Mr. Pothier was the Inc. Magazine Entrepreneur of the Year in the State of Arizona in 1990. In addition, Mr. Pothier has been the owner and president of his own consulting firm, providing high-level business consultation to various multi-million dollar corporations. Mr. Pothier specializes in management team building and sales and marketing strategy development. He is a graduate with a B.S. in Finance from Brigham Young University and the Executive Program at Stanford University