

Day Trips on a Dime

“Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things you didn’t do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines, sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.”

Mark Twain

TIME TO GET AWAY

- How much money do you have?
- How far do you want to travel?
- What kind of activity are you interested in?
 - Museums, Monuments, History, Hiking, Water
- Find out about the location.
 - Ask around, search the internet, Office of Tourism
- Get the resources you need.
 - Maps, brochures, etc. are often free of charge, AAA or internet
- Plan your trip.

“Once you have traveled, the voyage never ends, but is played out over and over again in the quietest chambers. The mind can never break off from the journey.” Pat Conroy

The Price is Right

- Attend free events / minimal fees.
- Pack your own meals.
- Go with friends to split gas costs.
- Other means of travel – public, bike, hike.
- Stay in alternative lodging – yurts, camping, hostels, bed and breakfasts.

“I soon realized that no journey carries one far unless, as it extends into the world around us, it goes an equal distance into the world within.” - Lillian Smith

Words of Travel Wisdom

- If I could write a book
- Always leave a place LOVING IT!
- Never let anyone tell you there is nothing to do in
- Seek activities for every season and you will love the place you live.
- Festivals – you will learn more about a place there than anywhere!
- Keep brochures for when family/friends come to visit.
- Read local papers, check out the Chamber of Commerce for upcoming events and festivals.
- Keep a calendar and check it regularly.
- Try the unusual be adventuresome!!!
- Take lots of pictures, sometimes you need PROOF!
- Share it with someone – there are only secret places in experience.

“We live in a wonderful world that is full of beauty, charm and adventure. There is no end to the adventures we can have if only we seek them with our eyes open.” Jawaharial Nehru
