

SOME SUGGESTED WEBSITES

<http://abgensoc.ca/homestead>

Alberta, Canada Homestead Index – 1870-1930

<http://Abish/byui.edu>

Click on Special Collections, BYU-Idaho University web site, part of which includes some marriages for western area couples. This site is a work in progress.

www.accessgenealogy.com

Good links to other genealogy sites

www.altavista.com

A good search engine. (See Google on page 3 for suggestions)

www.ancestry.com/

Most of the information on this is charged for on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual basis. There IS some free information. Check it out and see what you can find.

<http://www.archive.org/index.html>

The Wayback Machine – Old web pages and archives; put in an URL that is no longer online and this will help retrieve it.

<http://www.ask.com>

A good search site. Former Ask Jeeves site. Use much like Google.

<http://babelfish.altavista.com>

Type text into box to translate different languages

<http://www.baronage.co.uk>

Scottish and English Ancestry searches and links

<http://www.biblio.com>

Bibliography of used, rare, and out of date books. Set up account to purchase

<http://www.castlegarden.org>

Immigration records in New York from 1820 until Ellis Island opened in 1892

<http://www.cccalumni.org>

Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Alumni

<http://www.csagraves.com/testvet.php>

Most Confederate records are shown by state; this is for Georgia. But this site will lead to several other states

www.cyndislist.com

The most extensive and excellent free list of links to other web sites.

<http://www.daddezio.com>

Italian immigrant records

<http://www.deadfred.com>

Links and genealogical photos including “orphan” photos

<http://www.deathindexes.com>

Links to many sites in the U.S.

<http://www.digitalarchives.wa.gov/>

Birth, death and other records for the state of Washington. Site is growing monthly

<http://digitalarkivet.uib.no>

Norwegian Digitized records – 1801-1900, check English version

<http://digital.library.umsystem.edu/>

University of Missouri library records. This is a work in progress

<http://distantcousin.com/>

Many links to other sites and some training

www.dogpile.com

Another search engine. Don't be turned off by the name; it is a very good site.

<http://www.duvcw.org>

Website for Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War

<http://www.ellisland.org>

Official Ellis Island site

<http://www.emiarch.dk>

Danish Emigration Database – 1869-1940

<http://familyhistory.ie>

Genealogical Society of Ireland – charges membership

www.familysearch.org/

LDS Church Website

www.familytreemaker.com

Commercial genealogical site. Check information carefully. Also charges for CDs and programs

<http://findagrave.com>

Over 30 million graves have been indexed. Work in progress

<http://freeBMD.rootsweb.com>

Free English and Welsh births, marriages and deaths index from 1937

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~abneypark/abneyy.html>

Cemetery in Middlesex, England that has about 200,000 names. Go to indexing project; then to cemetery homepage. Site also shows some links to other Victorian cemeteries.

<http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~murray>

Gravestones, old pictures and other links for Northern Ontario, Canada

www.gencircles.com

From the same person who built the genforum site. Register for free. One section gives you an automatic split screen to compare different GEDCOMS that are included.

<http://www.gendisasters.com>

General disasters from 1800s to 1950s. Good source to find why your ancestor may have moved

<http://www.genealinks.com/register.htm>

Links to several types of vital records

<http://genealogy.az.gov>

Many birth and death records for the state of Arizona – up to year 1957

www.genforum.com

Find your surname and contact others searching your family, search archives, or leave a query.

www.gengateway.com/mainsite.htm

Directory of websites and also instruction on finding information

www.genhomepage.com/

The Genealogy home page. Has a membership charge. Has links to resources, maps & software.

<http://www.genuki.org.uk>

British Isle contents and links to counties, parishes, etc.

<http://www.glorerecords.blm.gov/>

Searchable homestead records for all applicable states

<http://www.godutch.com/links.html>

Dutch genealogy, history and some immigrant ships

www.google.com

Number one search engine. Just put in your surname, a space, and then a plus sign. Can then use words such as genealogy, births, deaths, marriages, i.e., +Jones +Idaho +deaths. You can also use quotation marks around a family name and get that in the exact order. Try the “Images” or “Alerts” feature for your surname.

<http://gravelocator.cem.va.gov>

Locates a veteran’s grave from several wars

<http://www.gutenberg.org>

The Gutenberg Library. Has over 27,000 public domain books that are digitized – growing site www.helplist.org.

Lists of people willing to help find your family; there may be a charge.

<http://www.historicaldirectories.org>

Local and Trade directories in England and Wales, 1750-1919

www.history.utah.org/

Go to Learning & Research Center, then the subject guide for databases, then collections. Burial records may show date and place of birth, date and place of death, date and place of burial. It may also show relatives. (Must use long form for this) You can also get copies of some death certificates and other archive items. New materials being added constantly.

<http://home.att.net/~wee-monster/germandata.html>

German genealogy site – has several good links

www.hotbot.com

Good search engine. Do the same thing as with Google to find your family’s information.

<http://huguenotsocietyofamerica.org>

Has some leads if your family was a Huguenot in England, France, America and other countries

<http://infowanted.bc.edu>

Database for Irish immigrants to Boston from the Boston Pilot Newspaper – Oct 1831-Oct 1921

www.interment.net/us

US Cemetery Records Online

<http://www.isle-of-man.com/>

Isle of Man Archives and genealogy

<http://www.kinshipsprints.com/>

Pictures of Immigrant ships and also some maps. There is a charge if you order copies

<http://www.legacy.com>

Death notices from newspapers using the Legacy Obituary Program. Available for 30 days free of charge; then a small fee for copies after that.

<Http://www.lib.byu.edu/index>

Links to several nation-wide libraries, including the Harold B. Lee Library. Some books are digitized or copies can be ordered for a small fee.

<http://www.lostcousins.com>

Search engine that lets you match with cousins researching your lines too. Free to search and free to join, but you must register.

<http://www.midlandhistoricaldata.org/index.html>

Data for some old counties in England – Shropshire, Staffordshire, Warwickshire and Worcestershire; other nearby counties as well

<www.mortalityschedules.com>

Free site for deaths in USA for 1850, 1860, 1870 & 1880

<www.myfamily.com>

Share GEDCOMS, pictures, family names, news etc. Now charges per family; must have password and sign in

<www.myheritage.com>

Free genealogy and family web pages

<www.nara.gov/>

National Archives, records administration archive contacts and publications

<http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/documentsonline>.

Click on Family History link. Gives war diaries and history of England along with links to the Domesday Book

<www.newspaperabstracts.com>

Emphasizes obituaries from historical newspapers

<www.ngsgenealogy.org/>

National Genealogical Society Net Guide. Has good links to other sites. Now part of Ancestry.com - subscription is required

<http://www.norwayfamily.com>

Norwegian genealogy website

<http://www.notablekin.org>

Has many surnames and includes Mayflower descendents

<http://www.novascotiagenealogy.com/>

Archives and records for births – 1864-1877; marriages, 1864-1930; deaths 1864-1877, 1908-1955. A work in progress.

<http://nypl.org/digital>

New York Public Library – has over 600,000 images and growing. It can be downloaded for free.

<http://portraits.geneanet.org>

Old portraits database. Also has some histories – free registration

<http://www.prov.vic.gov.au>

Australian Journal. Can download and read for free

<http://www.Rootsweb.com/>

Oldest and largest Genealogy web site.

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~nwa>

Notable Women Ancestors

www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~swewgw

Swedish Genealogy website

www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~wiaslan/occupations.html

Obsolete and Unfamiliar Occupational terms

<http://stevemorse.org>

Has many different sites: Ellis Island, Castle Gardens, Ports of entry, etc. (Also has 1920-1930 ED information)

<http://www.suvcwdb.org>

Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War Grave Registration. Register or search for free.

www.switchboard.com

U.S. Phone directories; lists both yellow and white pages.

www.theultimates.com/white

This is a site where you may be able to find someone you are looking for if they have a telephone. Change the word “white” to “yellow” for businesses.

www.usgenweb.org

Information for every state and county

<http://www.vetfriends.com>

Must sign up to be a member –find your service friends and family

www.werelate.org

Family tree information and wiki site

www.worldgenweb.org

Information and links to world-wide access area

<http://www.worldroots.com/brigitte/occupat.htm>

German occupations and illnesses

www.192.com/

United Kingdom phone directories

NEWSPAPERS AND LINKS

<http://digitalnewspapers.org>

Utah digital newspapers – searchable by using a surname for instance

<http://newslink.org>

Excellent web site for finding any newspaper in the U.S. Go to first "States" link, then to the state you want, then find the name of the paper. Lists daily, weekly and special newspapers. Also has some links for Europe, Central and South America.

MAPS USED IN GENEALOGY

<http://www.streetmap.co.uk/>

Street map of areas in the UK

www.topozone.com/

Topographical Maps of US – charges for membership and copies of maps

<http://www.multimap.co.uk/>

Area maps of Europe, North America and Australia

<http://www.davidrumsey.com/>

Cartographer association maps and historical maps

www.mapquest.com

Locates many addresses and telephone numbers for you. You can also use it for driving directions.

<http://www.quintinpublications.com/cdgaz.html>

This site has gazetteers and CD's of locations all over the world. There is a charge.

NEWSLETTERS

Rootsweb Rootsweb-review-subscribe@rootsweb.com/ monthly newsletter

Ancestry The Weekly Discovery. <http://www.ancestry.com/learn> ragan@mediaone.net Treasure Maps Genealogy Newsletter and write "subscribe" in the subject area.

IMMIGRANT SHIP INFORMATION

<http://immigrantships.net>

(Immigrant Ship Transcribers Guild). Site also has other types of links.

<http://olivetreegenealogy.com/index.shtml>

Ship lists, military, and some information on the USA, Canada, New Netherlands, Huguenots, Palatines, Mennonites, Mohawks and Loyalists. Now charges for membership and searches

www.boat-links.com/linklists/boatlink-16.html

Maritime links to websites

FREE ONLINE FAMILY TREE SITES & WEB PAGES

www.geni.com

www.myheritage.com

www.tribalpages.com

