

C O N T R I B U T O R S

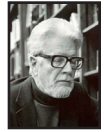

VOLUME 5 NUMBER 1 SPRING 2005

Kent Bessey—Native of Southern California. Received his B.S. and M.S. in mathematics from Brigham Young University and his D.A. in mathematics from Idaho State University. Served four years as editor of chief of the quarterly Mathematics & Technology in the Classroom. Worked as an educational consultant for IBM. Married to Siân (a native of Wales) and has five children.

Kent Bessey

Wayne Booth—Regarded as the father of a resurgent interest in ethical criticism. Professor Emeritus of English at the University of Chicago and former president of the Modern Language Association. Books include The Company We Keep: An Ethics of Fiction, The Vocation of a Teacher, and a forthcoming work on the rhetoric of religious discourse.

Wayne Booth

Richard Briggs—Came to BYU-Idaho in 1997 and teaches in the art department. Obtained his B.S. and B.F.A. from Utah State University in 1992 and M.F.A. from the University of Idaho in 1996. Enjoys scuba diving in places other than Burton, where he lives with his family.

Richard Briggs

Shane Cole—Earned a B.A. and M.L.I.S. from BYU in 1991 and 1993, respectively. His wife, Chela, is from Hidalgo, Mexico, and they have three children: Veronica (10), Michael (6), and William (3). Works so he can golf, hike, mountain-bike, and ski. Enjoys sporting events, concerts, theatres, and art galleries.

Shane Cole

Dean Cloward

Dean Cloward—Born in Salt Lake City, and a graduate of BYU in Economics and Psychology. Earned a Masters and a Doctorate in psychology from the University of Arizona. Currently serves as an Assistant Dean in the Dean of Students Office. With his wife, Tracie, has six children, three boys and three girls. Enjoys downhill skiing, board and card games, and watching movies.

Shane Goodwin

Shane Goodwin—Married to Gail, his “bride and joy,” and father of three children who patiently put up with math quizzes, jokes, and deep thoughts. Originally from Wyoming, served a mission in Ecuador, and received a B.A. from BYU and an M.S. from the University of Oregon. Loves to do anything outdoors, remodel the house, and play chess and the piano (not at the same time).

Terry Gorton

Terry Gorton—Came to BYU-Idaho in 1998. Obtained his M.A. from BYU in 1991, and his Ph.D. from Stony Brook University in 2003. With his wife, Lisa, has two children, Carli (6) and Nicole (3). Was born and raised Catholic in New York, then was baptized while serving as an army medic in Germany. Recently published an article in a book on Steinbeck’s moral philosophy.

Kip Hartvigsen

Kip Hartvigsen—Loves being outside, any season. Favorite pastimes are cross-country skiing and picnic-hiking with his family. Actually likes to work in the yard. Enjoys movies from the fifties, especially Hitchcock, Bible epics (like Ben Hur), and old MGM musicals. Favorite writers are Shakespeare, Austen, Twain, and Hawthorne.

Casey Hurley

Casey Hurley—Grew up in Idaho Falls and spent three years practicing corporate law in Portland, Oregon, with Stoel Rives LLP. Was married a month before coming to BYU-Idaho and dragged her husband, Matt, to Sugar City. Enjoys good books, music, theater, and everything in the outdoors, but her favorite hobby is spending time with her husband.

John J. Ivers—Native of Philadelphia. Received B.A. and M.A. degrees from BYU and an Ed.D from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Has taught at BYU-Idaho since 1989. Enjoys reading philosophy, hiking, taking walks, playing tennis, and watching the news. With his wife, Connie, has three children and one grandchild.

John J. Ivers

Vaun Waddell—Has been reading for a long time: as a youth learned to read literature ethically, as a student to read aesthetically, and more recently was indoctrinated in political interpretation. Before coming to BYU-Idaho in 1983, served in the U.S. Army and taught at College of Eastern Utah.

Vaun Waddell

Anita Weston—Obtained a B.S. degree from BYU and her M.S. and Ed.D. from Utah State University. Taught for a number of years at Northern University in South Dakota and at the University of Wisconsin—Eau Claire. Has been at BYU-Idaho for the past 16 years. Loves teaching and the students.

Anita Weston

Robert M. Wilkes—Began serving as interim president of BYU-Idaho on 1 December 2004. Came to Ricks College in 1970. Served as vice president of student life from 1998 to 2003. Born in Afton, Wyoming. Earned a B.S. in history and physical education, and a M.Ed. in Educational Administration, both from BYU. With his wife, Estella, has three sons, three daughters, and nineteen grandchildren.

Robert M. Wilkes

Greg K. Williams—Has taught in the Department of Religious Education for the past 10 years. Received a B.S. and M.S. from Utah State University and recently completed a Ph.D. from the University of Idaho. Greg enjoys working in his yard, playing “noon hoops,” golfing, and fishing. With his wife, Kristen, has four sons.

Greg K. Williams

Robert Worrell—Served a mission in Pennsylvania and attended Ricks College, where he met his wife, Bonnie. Majored first in art and then in English. Has worked at BYU-Idaho for 36 years, teaching art, English, humanities, and religion and serving as Art Department chair and chair of the Division of Performing and Fine Arts. Has four children and fifteen grandchildren.

Robert Worrell