

Eliza R. Snow Award for the Performing or Visual Arts

Established in 1988, the Eliza R. Snow Award is for significant accomplishments in the performing or visual arts area. It is awarded at the Eliza R. Snow Society Annual 'Evening of Honors', usually held in the Spring. Attendance at this event by the honoree would be highly encouraged.

Criteria:

1. This award is presented to an individual or couple who have achieved in attaining a level of accomplishments in the performing and visual arts, over an extended period of time.
2. Must be an alumnus/alumna of BYU-Idaho, completing a minimum of 24 credit hours, not necessarily a graduate.
3. The nominee must be active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and in good standing.
4. The nominee must be supportive of BYU-Idaho and its programs.
