TALENT AWARDS FOR DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE

Applicants with high scholastic achievement are encouraged to apply for an academic scholarship as well as a talent award. In the event an applicant is chosen as a recipient of both a talent and an academic award, he will be considered for awards to total not more than the full amount of tuition. Talent scholarships at BYU-Idaho are not automatically renewable; however, recipients may reapply for subsequent years.

Recipients of talent awards in Theatre are not required to be Theatre majors. However, they are obligated and encouraged to audition for plays. If they are not cast in a play, they are obligated to take at least one class per semester in the area in which they received their talent award monies. They will be obligated to support the organizations and programs of the Theatre Department.

Applicants must take the following steps to apply for a talent award:

1. Apply for admission to BYU-Idaho. This is not necessary prior to application for a scholarship, but must be complete in time for registration.
2. Apply for a talent award in Theatre. The applicant should complete the first two pages of the Application Supplement for Award in Theatre and have his or her theatre instructor complete the inserted page. (THE TALENT AWARD APPLICATION MAY BE OBTAINED BY CONTACTING THE THEATRE DEPARTMENT.)
3. Submit taped auditions. Tapes should be either a video or cassette, preferably video, and must be labeled with your name, address, and title of selections. Use fresh tapes only. (No longer than 10 minutes.)

Submit tapes and Supplemental Application to:

Department of Theatre
Talent Awards
BYU-Idaho
Rexburg, ID 83460-1215
(208) 496-2077

Application Materials must be mailed to BYU-Idaho prior to February 1. Awards will be granted on the basis of funds available and the talent qualifications of the applicant. We look forward to receiving your application. If you need additional help in completing your application, please feel free to contact us.
