Earn College Credit in High School

BYU-Idaho’s concurrent enrollment courses are ideal for high school students planning to attend BYU-Idaho in the future. These college-level online classes are the same courses offered on campus, and also fulfill BYU-Idaho graduation requirements.

To find out more about how to get involved, visit www.byui.edu/online and contact your high school counselor.*

High school students may be able to apply BYU-Idaho credits toward their high school requirements, allowing them to earn high school and college credit at the same time.

As an added benefit, concurrent enrollment through BYU-Idaho is affordable, offering a reduced tuition rate of $30 per credit. (Compared to $149 per credit for courses taken on campus).

*Students who plan on transferring concurrent enrollment credits to another institution should check with their high school counselor or contact the chosen college directly to find out how the credits will transfer.
