Post-Baccalaureate Guiding Principles:

1. Students should complete coursework in 1-2 semesters.
2. Enrollment in immediate semester after graduation is required.
3. Courses taken must be a required pre-requisite course for graduate school.
4. Students may take up to 21 credits per semester.
5. Students may not retake undergraduate courses or post-baccalaureate courses.
6. Students cannot remain in approved housing after graduation. Only matriculating (degree seeking) students qualify for approved housing. This means that Online-only, Continuing Education, and Post-Baccalaureate students do not qualify to live in approved housing.
