

FALL SEMESTER 2020 REGISTRATION GUIDE

In Fall Semester 2020, BYU-Idaho is offering a variety of course options designed to facilitate learning and safety. This chart will help you identify the course options that meet your individual needs as you prepare to register.

More face-to-face ← → Less face-to-face

	Classroom* 	Blended*  (formerly hybrid)	Flexible* 	Remote 	Online
What is the design of this class?	Classes will be taught on-campus on the days and hours listed in the Class Schedule. (Physical distance and other safety measures will be implemented.)	Classes will be a mixture of both on-campus AND remote instruction. Students should be available on the days and hours listed in the Class Schedule.	Class will be taught on-campus and remote. In coordination with the instructor, students can choose which class location works best for them.	Classes will be taught entirely in LIVE (synchronous), online sessions (using Zoom or similar tools) on the days and hours listed in the Class Schedule.	Classes will be taught all online (asynchronous) with digital course materials, such as video lectures.
Will I meet in a classroom on campus?	Yes	Yes, a blended class option is a mix of on-campus classroom instruction as well as days where learning will be remote.	Yes or No  (based on your preference in coordination with the instructor)	No	No
Am I expected to meet at a set time for class each day?	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
What type of students are eligible for these courses?	DAY (on-track), High School Concurrent, Flex-track students with an override	DAY (on-track), High School Concurrent, Flex-track students with an override	DAY (on-track), High School Concurrent, Flex-track students with an override	DAY (on-track), High School Concurrent, Flex-track students with an override	ONLN (online), DAY (on-track or flex-track), High School Concurrent
How do I find these courses in the registration system?	Class Type = DAY  Building = Austin, Benson, Spori, etc.	Class Type = DAY  Building = Blended (part online)	Class Type = DAY  Building = Flexible Location	Class Type = DAY  Building = Remote-Virtual Class	Class Type = ONLN  Building = Online Class
Will I have support if I need help in my classes?	Yes, you will not be learning on your own. No matter what types of classes you choose, BYU-Idaho is committed to providing students with support. Instructors and all administrative services are doing their best to make sure that you will have the help you need.
What should I do if I am concerned about my health?	If you are not comfortable coming to campus, we anticipate there will be sufficient Flexible, Remote, and Online sections available. You can contact Advising for more guidance.
Will every course be available in every method?	No. Some courses cannot be designed for all types of delivery. Check the Class Schedule to determine how each course will be offered.
Can I take a mixture of course options?	Yes. Students can register for any combination of options that meet their needs.

*These course options—all requiring face coverings in the classroom—will be offered as allowed by state, federal, and Church guidelines.